

The latest in instant, interactive social media networking for the adult industry!

Take a peek into the sensual world of adult social networking. Don't worry, we're all adults here so no one is going to censor anything you say or do. TippintheVelvet.com (TTV) is breaking all the rules and leading the way in free adult entertainment.

The Scintillating Details:

Think social networking without strict content guidelines... or a little casual dating without photo censorship.

TippintheVelvet.com is the only light or hardcore, adult social media site that provides anyone who is 18+ a place where they can be themselves without judgment or restriction. The founder, Jerey Reed, did extensive research and he knows what people want. So it's no surprise future users are already clamoring at their internet door, waiting to get started.

The Pleasure Players:

TippintheVelvet is the first site to open its arms to users from all walks-of-life.

Have a fetish, sexual preference or interested in hooking up with a group? Maybe you feel like having a fantasy fulfilled or a casual sex-text? You might feel like chatting about all of the steamy and elicit parts of life, sharing photos, or simply enjoy some humor with friends.

Have no fear - this site is open to everyone's whims and pleasures; users can delight in knowing they are on their own without webmasters or discussion monitors listening or watching.

As long as there are no illegal activities or crossing wires on the policies, users can feel at home.

The Sultry Platform:

TippintheVelvet takes all of your favorite things from other social platforms and combines them into one sexy little website and app without the iron curtain.

Other platforms remove photos that are barely risqué, so as not to shock or upset those who have traditional tastes. In today's world, individuality rules so TTV supports the notion that everyone has a right to party and have fun, their own way.

The Bare Facts:

- Caters strictly to adult visitors, a place where "you can be yourself"
- There is no cost for membership.
- Within minutes, users can upload profile photos and information and start their own party.

- Bring along friends from other platforms or make new ones.
- For some sexy fun, buy a pack of sexy fumojs for a nominal cost. Fumojs are similar to emojis, except a little (a lot) more graphic and fun. You won't find smiley faces here.
- Just like other social media platforms, it's accessible through computers, mobile phones or other devices.
- Policies allow for everything that is legal; all photos, language, hook-ups allowed
- Spamming members is unacceptable

The founder:

TTV is the brainchild of adult entertainment professional, Jerrey Reed. Born and raised in Las Vegas, Mr. Reed has had a career of high-profile positions with some of the city's most upscale gentlemen's clubs and casinos, such as Crazy Horse 3, Sapphire and The Palms.

Also fascinating, Mr. Reed comes from a long line of country music legends from the 50s and beyond: Lefty Frizzell, David Frizzell, Allen Frizzell, Dottie and Shelly West, most of who are listed in the Country Music Hall of Fame.

It was Jerrey's adult entertainment and musical backgrounds that set off the light bulb for creating a website and app that caters to the steamier side of classy.

Watch out, Misters Zuckerberg, Williams, Dorsey, Stone, Glass and Kremen! Mr. Reed is about to take the adult world by storm.
